

Full-Time Coach Job Description

1. Three days per week working at the office, Mondays to Fridays
2. Potential for other paper work and specific tasks handed out by the foreign coach manager
3. Weekly meetings, discussing issues from the previous weekend of classes as well as meeting discussing the plans for the coming weekend.
4. Required to attend infrequent meetings during morning rest hours if need arises.
5. Coaching of classes during the week
6. Potential to be sent to marketing events for the purpose of bringing in new students during the week
7. Potential to be assigned to coach football camps in and outside of Beijing
8. Two full days of weekend classes at an assigned field
9. Being assigned to special marketing events during the weekend or one time demo classes
10. Potential to coach a youth team for our youth tackle league
11. Potential to be required to act as referee for games
12. Required to attend a number of special events throughout the year including certain holiday parties and marketing events.
13. Clean/set up field